

California Commission on the Status of Women and Girls

Strategic Planning

Mission Statement

Current Mission Statement:

The Commission on the Status of Women, a nonpartisan state agency, works in a culturally inclusive manner to promote equality and justice for all women and girls by advocating on their behalf with the Governor, the Legislature and other public policymakers, and by educating the public in the areas of economic equity including educational equity, access to health care including reproductive choice, violence against women and other key issue areas identified by the Commission as significantly affecting women and girls.

Proposed NEW mission statement:

The Commission on the Status of Women and Girls, a nonpartisan state agency, works in an inclusive manner to promote equality, justice and well-being for all women and girls in California through education, outreach and policy work.
