

California Commission on the Status of Women and Girls

Strategic Planning

Working Statement

The Commission on the Status of Women and Girls, a nonpartisan state agency, works in an inclusive manner to promote equality, justice and well-being for all women and girls in California through education, outreach and policy work. The Commission focuses on the needs of women and girls in the overarching areas of health, safety and employment and in the intersections of these policy areas. The Commission focuses on providing nonpartisan, academically sound policy information for elected officials and others to help guide good policy work women and girls in California. Additionally, the Commission engages in cooperative activities with other state, local and nonprofit agencies to promote projects that improve the lives of women and girls.
