

Recommendations for CCDA (from Statewide ADA Coordinator Survey)

- Future ADA coordinators receive formal training for their role for at least 1-2 days with training manual that guides them to better perform their roles.
- Coordinators should be given resources and contacts in case they have questions or difficulty with any of their duties.
- Provide a job description of someone who enters the role of an ADA coordinator to provide guidelines that can be followed.