In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. ANAHEIM UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH Case No. 2019010939 ORDER OF NO ACTION REGARDING NOTICE TO PRESENT EVIDENCE

On January 24, 2019, Parent on behalf of Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request with the Office of Administrative Hearings, naming Anaheim Union High School District. The due process hearing is scheduled to take place on March 19, 20, and 21, 2019.

On January 25, 2019, Student filed a motion to present evidence, including legal arguments in support of Student's due process claim. On January 30, 2019, OAH issued a Notice of No Action regarding the motion, explaining that Student would have an opportunity to present evidence, written arguments, and oral arguments at the due process hearing, or in response to any motion filed by Anaheim Union. (Ed. Code, § 56505, subd. (e)(2).) Accordingly, OAH took no action in response to the motion.

On February 5, 2019, Student filed a Notice to Present Evidence, including legal arguments in support of Student's due process claim. For the same reasons OAH on January 30, 2019, took no action to a similar request, no action is required in response to this request. Any further frivolous filings may lead to an order for sanctions upon Parent.[1]

IT IS SO ORDERED.
