BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of: CLOVIS UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT, v. PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT.	OAH Case No. 2016060036 ORDER FOR TELEPHONIC TESTIMONY

The due process hearing in this matter was held on July 12, 13, and 14, 2016, and was then continued to July 25, 2016 at 12.00 p.m. The parties having agreed, the testimony of the two remaining witnesses who are scheduled to testify on July 25, 2016, will be taken by telephone.

Student's witness Patricia McVeigh will testify first, followed by Clovis's witness Dr. David Weber. This schedule is subject to alteration by the parties with the consent of the ALJ.

OAH will initiate the telephone conference. The ALJ will be in Oakland and will call the parties' attorneys at their respective offices and then will call the witnesses and parties. Both witnesses and both parties will be present in Meeting Room 3 at 1680 David C. Cook Way, Clovis, California, 93611, unless other arrangements are made and approved. Clovis will provide appropriate telephone equipment so that the parties and witnesses can hear the attorneys and the ALJ and vice versa.

The proponent of each witness appearing by telephone shall ensure that the witness is provided with a complete set of exhibit binders from all parties, containing all of each party's exhibits, during his or her testimony. Promptly upon receipt of this Order, Clovis shall send the ALJ's exhibit binders to the ALJ at the Office of Administrative Hearings, Room 206, 1515 Clay Street, Oakland, California, 92612 so that they are available to the ALJ by July 15, 2016.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
