STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. ATASCADERO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT AND SAN LUIS OBISPO COUNTY OFFICE OF EDUCATION.	OAH Case No. 2016090295 ORDER DENYING MOTION TO COMPEL RESPONSE TO COMPLAINT

On February 7, 2017, Student filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings an amended request for due process (complaint) naming Atascadero Unified School District (District) and San Luis Obispo County Office of Education (SLCOE). On February 21, 2017, Student filed a motion to compel a response to the complaint from District and SLCOE.

On February 24, 2017, both District and SLCOE served on Student's counsel a response to Student's amended complaint. They filed a courtesy copy of their responses with OAH. OAH did not otherwise receive a response to Student's motion to compel from the responding parties.

Because both responding parties have served on Student's counsel a response to Student's amended complaint, Student's motion is moot, and therefore denied.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
