In the Matter of: PARENT(S) ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. FONTANA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH Case No. 2015091069 DETERMINATION OF SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On September 21, 2015, Parent on behalf of Student filed a due process hearing request[1] naming Fontana Unified School District.

On October 5, 2015, District timely filed a notice of insufficiency as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.[2] The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.[3] These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.[4]

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint."[5] The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.[6] Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.[7]

DISCUSSION

Student's complaint alleges that Student was left unsupervised at or near a gas station. Although the complaint does not specify who left Student unsupervised, or when this happened, the individualized education amendment attached to the complaint makes clear that this incident occurred on August 6, 2015, and was the result of District having dropped Student off at an incorrect location after school despite nobody being there to pick him up.

The facts alleged in Student's complaint are sufficient to put the District on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Student's complaint identifies the issues and adequate related facts about the problem to permit District to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation.

Therefore, Student's statement of claims is sufficient.
