In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. INGLEWOOD UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH Case No. 2019020498 ORDER DETERMINING COMPLAINT SUFFICIENT

On February 13, 2019, Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request[1] (complaint) with the Office of Administrative Hearings naming Inglewood Unified School District. On February 28, 2019, Inglewood filed a Notice of Insufficiency as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).) The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).) These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation. (See H.R.Rep. No. 108-77, 1st Sess. (2003), p. 115; Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, 1st Sess. (2003), pp. 34-35.)

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint." (Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, supra, at p. 34.) The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes. (Alexandra R. ex rel. Burke v. Brookline School Dist. (D.N.H., Sept. 10, 2009,

[1] A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under title 20 U.S.C. section 1415(b)(7)(A).

DISCUSSION

The facts alleged in Student's complaint are sufficient to put Inglewood on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Student's complaint identifies two issues, that Inglewood failed to timely convene an individualized education program team meeting prior to the start of the 2018-2019 school year and that Inglewood failed to have an IEP in place for Student at the beginning of the 2018-2019 school year. Although Student does not allege any additional facts, the issues are specific and Student identifies when the alleged violations occurred. The information is sufficient to permit Inglewood to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation. Therefore, Student's statement of the two claims is sufficient.

Student's proposed resolutions request that Inglewood fund Student's private school tuition and related costs, intensive individual behavior services, speech and language therapy, individual academic instruction, occupational therapy, and independent educational evaluations. A complaint is required to include proposed resolutions to the problem, to the extent known and available to the party at the time. (20 U.S.C. §1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(IV).) The proposed resolutions stated in Student's complaint are not well-defined. However, Student has met the statutorily required standard of stating a resolution to the extent known and available to him at the time.

ORDER

1. The complaint is sufficient under title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii).

2. All mediation, prehearing conference, and hearing dates in this matter are confirmed.
