FRESNO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT, v. PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT.	OAH Case No. 2012100291 NOTICE OF NO ACTION AND ORDER CONCERNING COMMUNICATION WITH ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

On September 21, 2014, Jan Johnson-Tyler of EvoLibri sent an email to Administrative Law Judge Margaret Broussard, who issued the decision in this case. The email concerned implementation of the decision. There is no indication that the email was sent to anyone else involved in this case. A copy of the email is attached.

On September 22, 2014, the Office of Administrative Hearings received a copy of a letter dated September 19, 2014, also from Ms. Johnson-Tyler addressed to Michael E. Hanson, Superintendent, Fresno Unified School District. A copy of the letter was mailed to ALJ Broussard. The letter also concerned implementation of the decision. The letter indicates that copies were sent to Tania Whiteleather, attorney for Student, and Ruth Quinto, Deputy Superintendent, Fresno Unified.

OAH issued the final decision in this case on September 15, 2014, and a corrected decision on September 16, 2014. The decision orders Fresno Unified to provide compensatory education services through EvoLibri. Once OAH issued its decision, it no longer has jurisdiction of the case.

Neither EvoLibri nor the parties shall have any direct communication with ALJ Broussard. OAH shall take no further action in this case unless otherwise required by law.
