IN THE MATTER OF:

PARENTS ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

FREMONT UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NUMBER 2023050768

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

JUNE 07, 2023

On May 19, 2023, Parent on behalf of Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request, called a complaint, with the Office of Administrative Hearings, referred to as OAH, naming Fremont Unified School District. On June 2, 2023, Fremont Unified filed a Notice of Insufficiency as to the complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties have the right to challenge the complaint's sufficiency. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).) The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it: (1) describes the problem relating to the proposed change regarding the Student's identification, evaluation, or educational placement, or providing the Student a free appropriate public education; (2) includes facts about the problem; and (3) includes a proposed resolution to the extent known and available to the party at the time. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).) These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation. (See H.R.Rep. No. 108-77, 1st Sess. (2003), p. 115; Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, 1st Sess. (2003), pp. 34-35.)

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint." (Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, supra, at p. 34.) The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes. Lenape Regional High School Dist. Bd. Of Educ.* (3d Cir. 2009) 306 Fed.Appx. 772, 775 [nonpub. Opn.].) Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge. (Assistance to States for the Educ. Of Children with Disabilities & Preschool Grants for Children with Disabilities (Aug. 14, 2006) 71 FR 46,540-46541, 46699.)

DISCUSSION

Student, through her parent, has filed a 32-page complaint, identifying 19 issues, labeled (a)-(s). Student also has requested remedies under 19 separate paragraphs. Fremont Unified argues that the issues in the complaint fail to put Fremont Unified on notice of the issues for hearing within OAH's jurisdiction.

Fremont Unified contends that only one issue, Issue (r) is sufficiently pled. However, it is clear both from the breadth of the complaint as well as Fremont Unified's Notice of Insufficiency that there is a wealth of facts in which Fremont Unified can determine the nature of the issues for hearing, as well as make adequate preparation for the hearing. Student's complaint identifies the issues and adequate facts about the problem to permit Fremont Unified to respond and participate in a resolution session and mediation. Therefore, Student's complaint and statement of the 19 issues and remedies are sufficiently pled.

ORDER

1. The complaint is sufficient under title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii).
2. All mediation, prehearing conference, and hearing dates in this matter are confirmed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
