| PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, | OAH Case No. 2015080076 |
| v. | ORDER FOLLOWING TELEPHONIC STATUS CONFERENCE |
| TUSTIN UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT. | |

On August 15, 2016, a telephonic status conference was held before Presiding Administrative Law Judge Peter Paul Castillo, Office of Administrative Hearings. Lauren-Ashley L. Caron, Attorney at Law, appeared on behalf of Student. S. Daniel Harbottle, Attorney at Law, appeared on behalf of Tustin Unified School District. The TSC was recorded.

Administrative Law Judge Judith L. Pasewark heard this matter on February 23, 24, and 25, 2016, in Tustin, California. OAH recorded the hearing. However, a review of the recording revealed no sound on the recording. Student's counsel audio recorded the hearing with the approval of OAH and provided a copy of the recording to OAH.

Based upon discussion with the parties, the OAH issues the following order:

1. The parties agree that Student's audio recording of the administrative hearing in this matter shall be the official audio recording of this matter, subject to the below.

2. Subject to the approval of the reviewing court, the parties may augment the record as to any portions of the hearing in which Student's audio recording is not audible, or portions not recorded.

3. OAH shall mail to the parties on compact disk its copy of the audio recording of the hearing, and OAH shall inquire with its information technology unit if it is possible to recover any sound from its recording.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
