In the Matter of: PARENTS ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. TORRANCE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH CASE NO. 2013050386 ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On June 11, 2013, Parents on behalf of Student (Student) filed an Amended Due Process Hearing Request[1] (AC) naming the Torrance Unified School District (District) as respondent.

On June 26, 2013, the District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's AC.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.[2] The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.[3] These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.[4]

[1] A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint."[5] The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.[6] Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.[7]

DISCUSSION

The facts alleged in Student's AC are sufficient to put the District on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Student recites, on pages two through 27 of the AC, in detail facts to support its allegations. The AC clearly identifies the issues and alleges specific related facts about each of the individual issues to permit the District to respond to the AC and participate in a resolution session and mediation.

Therefore, Student's amended complaint is sufficient.
