OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. ELK GROVE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH Case No. 2016100772 ORDER DENYING STUDENT'S MOTION OPPOSING ALJ'S SUBSTANTIVE CHANGE OF ISSUE AS MOOT

On November 14, 2016, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge conducted a prehearing conference in this matter and issued an Order Following Prehearing Conference, which set forth the issues to be heard at hearing.

On November 16, 2016, Student filed a "Motion Opposing ALJ's Substantive Change of Issue," arguing that one of the issues defined in the PHC Order was inaccurate and unduly narrow. The motion also requested two other changes in the Order. No response has been received from Elk Grove.

On November 17, 2016, ALJ Clifford Woosley issued an Order Granting Motion to Dismiss, in Part, and Order Bifurcating Hearing. That Order dismissed the majority of issues in the November 14, 2016 Order Following PHC, making the instant motion moot.

Specifically Student's requests to alter the language of Issue 1.e, and the lettering of the issues, are moot because Judge Woosley's order dismissed the entirety of Issue 1. Student's request to alter the language of Issue 2.d is also moot because Judge Woosley's order dismissed the entirety of Issue 2.

Student's motion is denied as moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
