On May 22, 2019, the undersigned administrative law judge issued an order that dismissed Student's amended complaint on the grounds that Student's claims were barred by a December 18, 2018 final settlement agreement and release entered into by the parties.

On June 4, 2019, the undersigned administrative law judge issued an order denying Student's motion for reconsideration.

On June 19, 2019, Student filed a second motion for reconsideration, and also requested that OAH assign a different ALJ to Student's request.

First, no provision of law exists that requires OAH to reassign Student's request for reconsideration to obtain a different ruling. Secondly, OAH takes no action in regards to Student's second motion for reconsideration as the motion fails to demonstrate why the order of dismissal and order denying reconsideration necessitates further review by OAH as parties are not entitled to file the same motion multiple times to receive the result that they want. Therefore, OAH will take no action as to Student's June 19, 2019 request.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
