OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of: LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT, v. PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT.	OAH Case No. 2016100527 ORDER FOLLOWING PREHEARING CONFERENCE AND CONTINUING PREHEARING CONFERENCE

On October 31, 2016, a telephonic prehearing conference was held before Administrative Law Judge Alexa J. Hohensee, Office of Administrative Hearings. Mary Kellogg, Attorney at Law, appeared on behalf of Los Angeles Unified School District. The PHC was recorded.

Prior to the start of the PHC, ALJ Hohensee called the two current telephone numbers for Parents provided by District, with a Spanish language interpreter on the call. One of the numbers was apparently out of order (repeated out of order signal) and one of the numbers had a full mailbox and would not take any messages. The interpreter was released.

Based upon discussion with District, the ALJ issues the following order:

1. Continuance of PHC. The PHC is continued to 10:00 a.m. on November 4, 2016. OAH will initiate the call and will provide a Spanish language interpreter on the call.

2. District Declaration of Reasonable and Good Faith Efforts. By no later than 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 3, 2016, District shall file a sworn declaration describing the reasonable and good faith efforts taken by District to ensure that OAH has current telephone and address information for Student's parents.

At the continued PHC, the ALJ and the parties will discuss whether the hearing will proceed as currently scheduled, or whether new contact information warrants a continuance of the due process proceedings.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
