In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. MONROVIA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH Case No. 2015100280 ORDER DENYING NOTICE OF INSUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT

On October 02, 2015 Student filed a 27-page Due Process Hearing Request[1] (complaint) naming Monrovia Unified School District. On October 16, 2015, Monrovia timely filed a Notice of Insufficiency as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.[2] The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.[3] These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.[4]

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint."[5] The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.[6] Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.[7]

DISCUSSION

Student's 27-page complaint lists numerous facts and sets forth a number of issues. Monrovia challenges only a few of those issues. Specifically, Monrovia contends that Student vaguely defined the areas of present levels of performance that were deficient; Student failed to distinguish the time frames at issue regarding occupational therapy and speech therapy offers; and Student did not provide sufficient facts regarding Parents' request for an IEP meeting.

The facts alleged in Student complaint are sufficient to put Monrovia on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Student's complaint identifies the issues and adequate related facts about the problem to permit District to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation. Therefore, Student's statement of claims is sufficient.
