Collection of Personal Information. The California Department of General Services' (DGS) California Building Standards Commission (CBSC) administers the Code Advisory Committee (CAC) application process as it relates to the California Building Standards Code, Title 24 of the California Code of Regulations as authorized by the California Administrative Code, Title 24, Part 1, Chapter 1, Article 2 (the Program).

CBSC collects personal information (as defined in our Privacy Policy) on our behalf such as: your name, address, phone number and email address.

Use of Personal Information. CBSC collects personal information for the following purposes:

- To communicate with you regarding your CAC application and participation.

Providing the information requested on the forms is not mandatory. If you decline to provide this information, CBSC will not be able to communicate with you regarding your CAC application and/or participation.

Sharing of Personal Information. CBSC will share your personal information and other data with other state agencies who support or oversee the Program for the following reasons:

- Provide Program services
- Program management, reporting and evaluation
- Engage in ordinary business and emergency operations
- Complying with law, protecting legal rights

Furthermore, any personal information collected is subject to the protections and limitations in the California Information Practices Act, the California Public Records Act, and state policy. DGS' general privacy policy is available at <https://www.dgs.ca.gov/Privacy>.

Possible Disclosure of Personal Information. We may be required to disclose your information to comply with applicable laws (including laws outside of your country of residence), regulations, court orders, government and law enforcement requests, including national security or other law enforcement requirements. Additionally, if we reasonably believe that it is necessary or appropriate, we reserve the right to use or disclose your information to allow us to pursue available claims or remedies and protect our legal rights, property or the safety of our employees, or others, to the extent allowed by applicable law. This includes exchanging information with companies, law enforcement agencies, the district attorney's office, or the California Attorney General's Office for the purposes of fraud detection, prevention and/or prosecution.

Updates to this Notice on Collection. From time to time, we may change this Notice to comply with regulatory requirements, accommodate new technologies/industry practices, or to reflect any changes in how we process or share information. Any changes to this Notice will be effective when we post the revised Notice on dgs.ca.gov/BSC/Forms/Notice on Collection. The effective date states when this Notice came into effect and serves as notice of any updates. Your use of the Program following these changes means you accept the revised Notice.

To see prior versions of our Notice, please visit CBSC's Notice on Collection webpage noted above.

Access to Your Information. You have the right to review records containing the information that you provided to CBSC. To request records, please contact:
