

OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA
SPECIAL EDUCATION DIVISION

FREE OR REDUCED COST SPECIAL EDUCATION ATTORNEYS

The Office of Administrative Hearings, also referred to as OAH, is required to maintain a list of free or low cost attorneys and to make that list available to the public. The Attorneys listed in the tables below self-certify that they provide services at a low cost or free to their clients. You should contact the individual attorney and determine what free or low cost services they provide. OAH does not represent that the individuals or law organizations placed on this list offer free or low cost services. If you choose to use this list it is important that you contact the attorneys to discuss their fees.

HOW TO USE THIS LIST

The attorneys and organizations listed below are grouped by the geographic areas of California that the attorneys or the organizations serve. If an attorney or organization serves clients in both Southern California and the San Diego Area you will find their name only in the "Both Southern California and San Diego Area" category. The attorneys and organizations are listed only once.

To begin, first identify the geographic area of California where your student's school district is located. Then find the area below. The geographic areas of practice are listed alphabetically and appear in the following order: All California, Northern California Only, San Diego Area Only, Southern California Only, and Both Southern California and San Diego Area. Under each geographic area the attorneys and organizations are listed alphabetically.

In determining which attorneys or organizations to contact, you may want to consider the location of the attorney or the organization, or the age groups for which that attorney or organization provides services. This information is provided in the columns next to the attorney or organization's name for your convenience.
