DISTRICT,

v.

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT.

ORDER CONTINUING HEARING TO TELEPHONIC STATUS
CONFERENCE

This matter was scheduled to begin its fourth day of hearing at 9:30 a.m., November 18, 2013, at the District's offices. However, at approximately 6:10 a.m., District's attorney Angela Gordon contacted OAH, indicating that she was very ill and unable to attend the hearing. Since Ms. Gordon had been the only attorney representing the District from her firm, and her illness prevented the appearance of another duly prepared attorney on District's behalf, the hearing is continued to a telephonic a telephonic status conference, as follows:

DATE: Tuesday, November 19, 2013
TIME: 2:00 p.m.

OAH will initiate the conference call. All parties are instructed to be available for the telephonic conference. If Ms. Gordon remains too ill to participate, her firm of Fagen Friedman & Fulfroost LLP is ordered to schedule another attorney to appear on behalf of District at the telephonic status conference.

At the telephonic conference, the parties shall be prepared to discuss the date upon which the hearing will recommence. The Student's advocate and the District's attorney are encouraged to discuss possible dates before the conference.
