As of the prehearing conference held today, the parties had finalized the settlement language but had not executed the agreement. The parties therefore jointly requested that the matter be continued to permit them adequate time to obtain the signatures of all necessary parties.

A due process hearing must be conducted and a decision rendered within 45 days of receipt of the due process notice unless an extension is granted for good cause. After having reviewed the request to continue for good cause and considered all relevant facts and circumstances, the parties' request is GRANTED. All dates are vacated.
