In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

LONG BEACH UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH Case No. 2014080029

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
INSUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On July 29, 2014, Parent on behalf of Student (Student) filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) naming the Long Beach Unified School District (District).

On August 5, 2014, District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint alleges various claims, which are all insufficiently pled. Student fails to describe a single claim with specificity. Student makes various allegations, including that District failed to correctly identify his area of eligibility, failed to provide appropriate assessments, and failed to provide educational services. However, Student fails to describe when these claims arose, which individualized education program(s) (IEP) he is disputing, or which assessment(s) and service(s) the District failed to provide. As a consequence, Student’s Complaint is overly vague.

Rather, Student should designate each allegation as a separate issue, and provide a description of the nature of a problem with Student’s special education for each issue. For example, “Issue One: The IEP dated September 23, 20XX should have offered two hours per week of individual speech therapy.” Student should also plead facts related to each problem. For example, “Student has not made progress on his speech goals last year and he is difficult to understand. At the IEP meeting on September 23, 20XX, District only offered group speech therapy, which was insufficient to meet Student’s needs.”

As submitted, Student's complaint is insufficiently pled in that it fails to provide District with the required notice of a description of the problem and the facts relating to the problem.
