

BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE MATTER OF:
PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

CAJON VALLEY UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT.
OAH CASE NUMBER 2019060930

ORDER REQUIRING FILING OF ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS IN SUPPORT OF MOTION TO QUASH

On October 9, 2019, Student filed an objection to a notice to consumer regarding subpoenas issued to Dr. Mark McDonough, Dr. Mark Katz and Linda Nerenberg by Cajon Valley Unified School District. This is being treated as a motion to quash a subpoena by the Office of Administrative Hearings, often called OAH. On October 12, 2019, Cajon Valley opposed the motion to quash the subpoenas.

Neither the Student nor Cajon Valley attached copies of the subpoenas to the papers filed with OAH. Without copies of the subpoenas in question, OAH is unable to rule on the motion. Therefore, both parties have until Wednesday September 18, 2019 at 12:00 noon to file copies of the subpoenas for the records of Dr. Mark McDonough, Dr. Mark Katz and Linda Nerenberg with OAH, and to thereafter immediately either email, fax or personally deliver copies to each other. The parties will then have until five PM on Wednesday September 18, 2019 to file any objection to the authenticity of the documents filed by the opposing party. If there are no objections as to the authenticity of the subpoenas filed, no additional documents beyond the subpoena copies are required.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
