

Now Available: Delta Residents Survey Results!

Delta
Stewardship
Council

A CALIFORNIA STATE AGENCY

In 2023, you received an invitation to fill out a survey on Delta residents' beliefs and quality of life. Today, we want to share survey results with you.

Explore survey results in the interactive data viewer (rebrand.ly/555562) or read about survey results in short information sheets and a full summary report (available at deltacouncil.ca.gov/social-science).

Funded by the Delta Science Program, the Delta Residents Survey is a household survey to better understand Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta residents' livelihoods, well-being, priorities, and concerns for the region, conducted for the first time in 2023.

For any questions, please email DeltaResidentsSurvey@deltacouncil.ca.gov

Example Results

The top four challenges to residents' well-being are:

- Aging infrastructure
- Traffic/limited transit options
- Affordability of basic needs
- Threats to public safety

SACRAMENTO STATE

The Institute for Social Research at Sacramento State is distributing this communication on behalf of the Delta Stewardship Council (Council). The Council does NOT have any information that connects you to this survey; the Institute for Social Research has maintained your confidentiality.

Related Delta Updates

---

The Delta Protection Commission recently updated its socioeconomic indicators, which provide a snapshot of the economic and social well-being of the Delta region based on publicly-available data. To learn more about the updated indicators, visit rebrand.ly/894d70.

