RE: Repeal of Enterprise Zone Act (EZA) and Local Agency Military Base Recovery Area Act (LAMBRA)

This Broadcast Bulletin announces the imminent repeal of the Enterprise Zone Act (EZA) and Local Agency Military Base Recovery Area Act (LAMBRA) preference programs effective January 1, 2014. Assembly Bill 93 (Chapter 69, Statutes of 2013) was approved by the Governor and filed with the Secretary of State on July 11, 2013.

Departments should proceed as follows:

- Solicitations released with a contract start date of December 31, 2013 or before should include the EZA and LAMBRA preference program language.
- Solicitations released with a contract start date of January 1, 2014 or after should not include the EZA and LAMBRA preference program language.

There are no changes to the Target Area Contract Preference Act (TACPA) preference program and solicitations should continue to include the TACPA preference program language as applicable.

The Department of General Services, Procurement Division, Preference Program will continue to approve and monitor TACPA preferences.
