RE: Release of the State Model Cloud Computing Services Special Provisions for Infrastructure as a Service (IaaS) and Platform as a Service (PaaS)

This Broadcast Bulletin announces the release of the State Model Cloud Computing Services Special Provisions (IaaS and PaaS). The State Model Cloud Computing Services Special Provisions (IaaS and PaaS) shall be used in conjunction with the state's General Provisions – Information Technology (GSPD-401IT). The State Model Cloud Computing Services Special Provisions (IaaS and PaaS) were created from templates developed by the Center for Digital Government and with input from the information technology community and state departments.

The State Model Cloud Computing Services Special Provisions (IaaS and PaaS) shall be referenced in all Cloud Computing IaaS or PaaS solicitations released or contracts entered into on or after May 13, 2016 with the exception that any solicitation/bid (such as: Request for Offer, Request for Proposal, etc.) already publicly issued prior to the May 13, 2016 effective date may be awarded without them.
