STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE MATTER OF:

PARENTS ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

CAPISTRANO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NUMBER 2024090581

ORDER DETERMINING DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT INSUFFICIENT

SEPTEMBER 19, 2024

On September 17, 2024, Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request, called a complaint, with the Office of Administrative Hearings, referred to as OAH, naming Capistrano Unified School District, called Capistrano. On September 19, 2024, Capistrano filed a Notice of Insufficiency as to the complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties have the right to challenge the complaint's sufficiency. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).) The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it: (1) describes the problem relating to the proposed change regarding the Student's identification, evaluation, or educational placement, or providing the Student a free appropriate public education; (2) includes facts about the problem; and (3) includes a proposed resolution to the extent known and available to the party at the time. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).) These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation. (See H.R.Rep. No. 108-77, 1st Sess. (2003), p. 115; Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, 1st Sess. (2003), pp. 34-35.)

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint." (Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, supra, at p. 34.) The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes. Lenape Regional High School Dist. Bd. Of Educ.* (3d Cir. 2009) 306 Fed.Appx. 772, 775 [nonpub. Opn.].) Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge. (Assistance to States for the Educ. Of Children with Disabilities & Preschool Grants for Children with Disabilities (Aug. 14, 2006) 71 FR 46,540-46,541, 46,699.)

DISCUSSION

Student's complaint alleges two insufficiently pled claims. Student's Issue Number 1 claims that Don Juan Intermediate School did not meet Student's medical and academic needs. Student further claims that Don Juan Intermediate School did not collaborate with certain unspecified staff members upon Student's return from a short-term treatment center.

Student's Issue Number 1 does not include sufficient facts to give Capistrano "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint." For example, Student does not allege a timeframe for when these events allegedly occurred, such as when Student returned from the mentioned short-term treatment center. Student also does not include facts relating to when or how Capistrano allegedly did not meet Student's medical or academic needs. Therefore, Student's Issue 1 is insufficiently pled.

Student's Issue Number 2 claims that Student does not require placement in an "RTC" and that she could be served by an "NPA." Student's complaint does not provide definitions for RTC or NPA, and the undersigned makes no assumptions regarding Student's usage of those terms.

Student's Issue Number 2 also does not include sufficient facts to give Capistrano "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint." For example, it is unclear whether Student is challenging a placement offered by Capistrano. If so, Student does not provide the date of that placement offer or other information to identify the individualized education program, called an IEP, Student is challenging. Therefore, Student's Issue 2 is insufficiently pled.

MEDIATOR ASSISTANCE FOR NON-REPRESENTED PARENTS: A parent without an attorney may request that OAH provide a mediator to assist the parent in identifying the issues and proposed resolutions that must be included in a complaint. (Ed. Code, § 56505.) Parents are encouraged to contact OAH for assistance if they intend to amend their due process hearing request.

ORDER

1. Student's complaint is insufficiently pled under section title 20 United States Code 1415(c)(2)(D).
2. Student shall be permitted to file an amended complaint under title 20 United States Code section 1415(c)(2)(E)(i)(II).
3. The amended complaint shall comply with the requirements of title 20 U.S.C. section 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii) and shall be filed not later than 14 days from the date of this order.
4. If Student fails to file a timely amended complaint, the complaint will be dismissed.
5. All dates previously set in this matter are vacated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
