In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. BELLFLOWER UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT .	OAH Case No. 2018071234 ORDER DENYING BELLFLOWER'S MOTION TO EXCLUDE STUDENT'S PROPOSED EXHIBITS; CONTINUING DUE PROCESS HEARING; AND DENYING STUDENT'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS FOR BELLFLOWER'S FRIVOLOUS TACTICS AND ACTIONS CREATING UNNECESSARY DELAY

The due process hearing in this matter commenced on November 13, 2018, at 1:30 p.m. Tania Whiteleather, Attorney at Law, and Mother, appeared on behalf of Student. Eric Bathen, Attorney at Law, and Matthew Adair, Program Administrator, appeared on behalf of Bellflower Unified School District.

Before opening statements, and before any witness was called, the parties argued Bellflower Unified School District's Motion to Exclude Student's Proposed Exhibits and Student's Motion for Sanctions for Bellflower's Frivolous Tactics and Actions Creating Unnecessary Delay.

On November 9, 2018, Bellflower filed a Motion to Exclude Student's Proposed Exhibits on the grounds Student did not properly serve Student's exhibits on Bellflower. On November 13, 2018, Student filed an opposition. The motion to exclude evidence was denied for the reasons set forth on the record. At Bellflower's request for time to review Student's exhibit binder, the hearing was continued to November 27, 2018, at 9:30 a.m.

Petitioner's Motion for Sanctions for Bellflower's Frivolous Tactics and Actions Creating Unnecessary Delay was denied for the reasons set forth on the record.
