BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE MATTER OF:

PARENTS ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

ROSEVILLE JOINT UNION HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NUMBER 2024050221

ORDER CLARIFYING ISSUES FOR HEARING

JULY 9, 2024

On May 2, 2024, Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request, referred to as a complaint, with the Office of Administrative Hearings, naming Roseville Joint Union High School District, called Roseville. The Office of Administrative Hearings is referred to as OAH.

On June 28, 2024, OAH convened a prehearing conference, called a PHC. During that PHC, the administrative law judge, called an ALJ, clarified the issues for hearing.

On July 9, 2024, the undersigned ALJ, who did not conduct the PHC, further clarified the issues with the parties on the first day of hearing. Student dismissed without prejudice Issue 2 (a) as reflected in the order following the June 28, 2024 prehearing conference. The undersigned raised concerns regarding the clarity of the timeframes of each issue. Following a discussion with the parties, the ALJ confirmed the following issues would be heard and decided in this due process matter:

1. Did Roseville Joint Union High School District deny Student a free appropriate public education during the 2022-2023 school year by failing to assess Student in all areas of need, including:
    a. functional behavior;
    b. assistive technology and augmentative communication; and
    c. speech and language?
2. Did Roseville Joint Union High School District deny Student a free appropriate public education during the 2022-2023 school year by failing to provide:
    a. speech and language services;
    b. specialized transportation;
    c. one-to-one aide;
    d. applied behavior analysis services; and
    e. consultation between special education teachers and general education teachers about Student's homework assignments?
3. Did Roseville Joint Union High School District deny Student a free appropriate public education from the beginning of the 2023-2024 school year through May 2, 2024, by failing to assess Student in all suspected areas of need, including:
    a. functional behavior;
    b. assistive technology and augmentative communication; and
    c. speech and language?
4. Did Roseville Joint Union High School District deny Student a free appropriate public education from the beginning of the 2023-2024 school year through May 2, 2024, by failing to provide:

a. home or hospital instruction;
b. speech and language services;
c. specialized transportation;
d. one-to-one aide;
e. applied behavior analysis services; and
f. consultation between special education teachers and general education teachers about Student's homework assignments?

The parties agreed with the undersigned's clarification of the issues as described above. The hearing then proceeded on these issues.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
