BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:
ASPIRE PUBLIC SCHOOLS,	OAH CASE NO. 2013040872
v.	ORDER AFTER HEARING
PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT.

The due process hearing in this matter was conducted in Stockton, California on May 22, 2013, and June 4-7, 2013, by the undersigned Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). The ALJ granted the parties' request for written closing arguments, and agreed to confirm this order in writing.

The parties shall submit, via facsimile transmission, written closing arguments by close of business on June 18, 2013. The telephone number for submission of the arguments is 916-376-6319. Closing arguments shall be double-spaced, in 12 point font, and shall not exceed 20 pages in length, excluding a cover sheet, table of contents, and/or table of authorities.

The parties are encouraged, but not ordered, to address the following questions in their closing arguments:

1. Why or why not was the District entitled to hold the March 27, 2013 individualized education program meeting without a parent being present?

2. Why or why not does the District's offer of March 27, 2013, meet Student's unique needs and provide him with a free appropriate public education (FAPE)?

3. If you believe the current offer does not provide Student with a FAPE, what else do you think is needed? (This questions is directed to Mother)

4. What requirements must be met before an individualized education program meeting can be held without a parent in attendance?

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: June 12, 2013
