BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of: PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT, v. ELK GROVE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.	OAH Case No. 2014070099 ORDER DENYING REQUEST FOR RECONSIDERATION

On October 30, 2014, the undersigned Administrative Law Judge issued an order denying Student's request to consolidate this case with a sibling case (OAH Case No. 2014070093). On November 7, 2014, Parents, acting on behalf of Student,[1] filed a motion for reconsideration of the ruling denying consolidation. On November 12, 2014, Elk Grove Unified School District filed its response, opposing Student's motion for reconsideration.

APPLICABLE LAW

The Office of Administrative Hearings will generally reconsider a ruling upon a showing of new or different facts, circumstances, or law justifying reconsideration, when the party seeks reconsideration within a reasonable period of time. (See, e.g., Gov. Code, § 11521; Code Civ. Proc., § 1008.) The party seeking reconsideration may also be required to provide an explanation for its failure to previously provide the different facts, circumstances or law. (See Baldwin v. Home Savings of America (1997) 59 Cal.App.4th 1192, 1199-1200.)

DISCUSSION AND ORDER

Although Student expresses his disagreement with the ALJ's order denying consolidation, and spends considerable amount of time explaining the facts, and the law that were already considered by the ALJ in issuing the order denying consolidation, Student failed to present any new or different facts, circumstances, or law justifying reconsideration. Accordingly, Student's motion for reconsideration is denied.

[1] Student is over eighteen years old.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
