BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE MATTER OF:

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT,

v.

PARENTS ON BEHALF OF STUDENT.

OAH CASE NUMBER 2023070149

ORDER GRANTING CONTINUANCE FOR FILING OF WRITTEN CLOSING ARGUMENTS ONLY

AUGUST 18, 2023

Administrative Law Judge Alexa Hohensee, of the Office of Administrative Hearings, conducted the due process hearing in this matter on August 16 and 17, 2023. Student did not appear on either day. Los Angeles Unified School District rested its case on August 17, 2023, and requested a continuance to submit written closing argument. The request was granted on the record. The Office of Administrative Hearings is called OAH. The Administrative Law Judge is called the ALJ.

The parties may file written closing arguments, called closing briefs, with OAH until no later than 5:00 PM on September 7, 2023. Closing briefs are not evidence.

Closing briefs are submitted to help the ALJ understand the evidence and to argue how the law should be applied by the ALJ in deciding the case.

The closing briefs may not be longer than 25 pages with one and one-half line spacing. The parties may, but are not required to, include additional pages for a table of contents and a table of authorities.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
