On July 13, 2017, the undersigned administrative law judge issued an order that vacated the Order to Show Cause orally issued on June 26, 2017, and issued in writing on June 27, 2017. On August 7, 2017, Student filed a document captioned Petitioner's Response to OSC Order. In the conclusion section on page 11, Student stated, "OAH should reconsider the order vacating the OSC and amend it . . . ." OAH deems Student's filing to be a request for reconsideration. Long Beach Unified School District did not file any response to Student's filing.

APPLICABLE LAW

The Office of Administrative Hearings will generally reconsider a ruling upon a showing of new or different facts, circumstances, or law justifying reconsideration, when the party seeks reconsideration within a reasonable period of time. (See, e.g., Gov. Code, § 11521; Code Civ. Proc., § 1008.) The party seeking reconsideration may also be required to provide an explanation for its failure to previously provide the different facts, circumstances or law. (See Baldwin v. Home Savings of America (1997) 59 Cal.App.4th 1192, 1199-1200.)

DISCUSSION

Reconsideration

Student alleges no new facts, circumstances, or law in support of the request reconsideration.

The request is not accompanied by a sworn declaration by anyone.

The request is not timely because it was not received within ten days after issuance of the order.

Accordingly, Student's request for reconsideration is Denied.

ORDER

IT IS SO ORDERED.
