OAH CASE NUMBER 2023060384

ORDER FOR WRITTEN CLOSING ARGUMENTS

SEPTEMBER 7, 2023

On September 6, 2023, Administrative Law Judge, or ALJ, Linda Dowd, from the Office of Administrative Hearings, or OAH, held the due process hearing in this case. San Diego Unified School District appeared. Parents did not appear. ALJ Dowd called Parent while on the record and confirmed Parents received the invitation to the due process hearing. Parent confirmed she received the invitation but elected not to appear or participate in the due process hearing. The ALJ encouraged Parents to participate in the due process hearing.

The hearing proceeded without Parents. San Diego Unified presented its evidence. Witness testimony and presentation of documentary evidence concluded on September 6, 2023, and OAH continued the hearing to September 27, 2023, at 5:00 PM, for written closing arguments to allow Parents to submit an argument in writing as to why Parents believe San Diego Unified's January 6, 2023, psychoeducational assessment, as amended on January 24, 2023, was not legally compliant. Parents are not required to submit a written closing argument, however, if Parents choose to submit a written closing argument, they can use any of San Diego Unified's documents in the admitted exhibits file in Case Center to support their argument.

ORDER

1. The parties may file written closing arguments due by 5:00 PM on September 27, 2023. Parties are to file the written closing arguments with OAH along with a proof of service that Parents and San Diego Unified were served with a copy of the written closing arguments. OAH will not review any reply briefs.
2. The format of the closing arguments must be written on 8.5 x 11-inch paper, in blue or black ink or typed in 12-point font, and double-spaced. The pages must be numbered, and the document can be no longer than 20 pages excluding tables of contents and tables of authorities.

3. The parties may use any of San Diego Unified's documents in the admitted exhibits file in Case Center to support their argument.
4. The case is continued until September 27, 2023, at 5:00 PM, for written closing arguments.
